WIECHKOSKE PROMOTED TO MANAGING DIRECTOR

PNC Riverarch Capital is proud to announce Andrew Wiechkoske has been promoted to Managing Director. Andrew joined PNC Riverarch Capital in 2011 as an associate and has steadily progressed through the firm, most recently holding the title of Principal. Andrew has been integral to PNC Riverarch Capital's success, including leading our first international acquisition of Pirtek Europe, and our sale of Authority Brands last year.

Andrew received a bachelor of business administration in finance and economics, magna cum laude, from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA, with honors, from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. He was previously a director of Authority Brands, Carbon's Golden Malted, Fire & Life Safety America, and Goldco. He is currently a director of Feeders Supply, Global Claims Services, North American Breaker Company, Painters Supply & Equipment Co., Pirtek Europe, Sola Salon Studios and Steelite International.

Andrew is a true asset to our group and we are excited to have him step into this leadership position. Please join us in congratulating Andrew in his new role.
