Pittsburgh, August 19, 2013

PNC Riverarch Capital announces that its portfolio company, Goldco, LLC, has completed its second add-on acquisition since PNC Riverarch Capital led a recapitalization of the company in December 2012. Goldco has acquired fourteen Burger King restaurants, all of which are located in the West Palm Beach trade area, from Fast Food Enterprises #2, LLP. Debt financing for the acquisition was provided by NXT Capital, while PNC Riverarch Capital, Goldco management, and other investors provided equity capital. TM Capital served as financial advisor to Goldco.

After giving effect to the acquisition, Goldco operates a total of 110 Burger King restaurants in Florida, Alabama, and Georgia. Since its founding in 1980 with a single restaurant, Goldco has consistently grown its footprint through new store development and acquisitions of contiguous franchisees. The company is now one of the ten largest Burger King franchisees in the United States.

The Goldco investment for PNC Riverarch Capital is led by Michael Hand, managing director; Michael Rost, managing director; Andrew Wiechkoske, director; and, David Poss, associate. Hand, Rost, and Wiechkoske represent PNC Riverarch Capital on the Goldco board of directors.
